

MR. O'MEARA'S
EXPOSITION OF THE TRANSACTIONS, THAT HAVE TAKEN PLACE
AT ST. HELENA,
SUBSEQUENT TO
THE APPOINTMENT OF SIR HUDSON LOWE.

H. Gall. Rec. 1293.

290. sub.

---

CHARLES WOOD, Printer,
Poppin's Court, Fleet Street, London.

150
38

AN

EXPOSITION

OF SOME OF

THE TRANSACTIONS, THAT HAVE TAKEN PLACE

AT

ST. HELENA,

SINCE

THE APPOINTMENT OF SIR HUDSON LOWE

AS GOVERNOR OF THAT ISLAND;

IN

ANSWER TO AN ANONYMOUS PAMPHLET,

ENTITLED,

"FACTS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE TREATMENT OF NAPOLEON BONAPARTE," &c.

CORROBORATED BY

VARIOUS OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS, CORRESPONDENCE, &c.

---

BY BARRY E. O'MEARA,

LATE SURGEON TO NAPOLEON.

---

"Some build rather upon the abusing of others, and (as we now say) putting tricks upon them, than upon the soundness of their own proceedings."

LORD BACON'S ESSAYS.

"I will be hang'd, if some eternal villain,
Some busy and insinuating rogue,
Some cogging cozening slave, to get some office,
Have not devis'd this slander!"

OTHELLO, ACT IV, SCENE II.

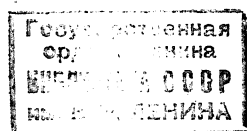

---

LONDON:

PRINTED FOR JAMES RIDGWAY, PICCADILLY.

MDCCCXIX.

8348.

и 104666-49.

C O N T E N T S.

---

Object of the present Publication, viz. by a true statement of certain transactions in St. Helena, since Sir Hudson Lowe's appointment there as Governor, to repel the calumnies and expose the falsehoods contained in the "Facts illustrative of the Treatment of Napoleon Bonaparte," &amp;c.....	1
Refutation of the statement given in the "Facts," relative to the "animal treatment" of Napoleon .....	8
List of Napoleon's household .....	10
Supplies allowed for the Establishment at Longwood by Sir Hudson Lowe, from October, 1816, to June, 1817.....	12
Statement of the extra expenditure of the French at Longwood for provisions, in consequence of the insufficiency of Sir Hudson Lowe's allowance .....	14
Extract from an official communication transmitted by the Author to the Secretary of the Admiralty, on the insufficiency of the Supplies allowed for Longwood.....	15
Observation of Napoleon on Lord Bathurst's Speech in the House of Lords, on the 18th of May, 1817.....	20
Pultry details entered into by Sir Hudson Lowe respecting the expenditure at Longwood .....	21

	Page
Falsehood of the account, contained in the "Facts," respecting the fertility and climate of Longwood, and the limits allowed to Bonaparte for exercise.....	23
The insulting conduct of Sir Hudson Lowe the true reason for Bonaparte confining himself within the house.....	26
Sir Hudson Lowe's menaces the cause of the clandestine correspondence carried on by the French at Longwood.....	28
An exposure of the fabrications of the author of the "Facts" relative to the "garden" of Longwood.....	30
Mis-statement in the "Facts," as to the posting of sentinels within sight of Longwood.....	34
True statement respecting the practice of sighting Napoleon.....	36
Exposure of the system pursued respecting the supply of newspapers to Longwood.....	36
Impartiality of abuse exhibited by the author of the "Facts"	38
His slanderous insinuations against Sir Robert Wilson.....	39
Whimsical reason given by the author of the "Facts," for supposing Bonaparte to be in health; with a correct statement of the progress of his disorder.....	40
Alarming state of Bonaparte's health in July, 1817, with the official letter written by the Author on that subject to Sir Hudson Lowe.....	42
Remarks on the climate of St. Helena, and its disastrous effects on our troops stationed there.....	45

Order to the Author to quit Longwood without seeing any of his patients .....	53
Defence of Napoleon against the moralists, who regret that he will not commit suicide.....	55
Fictitious views of Longwood with which the "Facts" are embellished.....	57
An instance of Sir Hudson Lowe's civility, as stated by the author of the "Facts," explained.....	59
Folly of the charge brought against Count Montholon and the other followers of Napoleon by the author of the "Facts" .....	63
Deliberate falsehood of the author of the "Facts," respecting the burning of Bonaparte's manuscripts.....	64
Scandals of the author of the "Facts" relating to Countesses Bertrand and Montholon .....	65
Statement of income and expenditure at Longwood, in answer to the slanders contained in the "Facts." .....	66
Shameful conduct of Sir Hudson Lowe, in delaying the discounting of the French bills.....	69
Other mis-statements of the author of the "Facts" corrected	71
Remarks on the refusal of Bonaparte to recognise the Commissioners of the Allied Powers.....	73
Conduct of Lieutenant Colonel Lyster towards the author, and his subsequent attack on Count Bertrand.....	75
Letter from the Author to Lieutenant Colonel Lyster, respecting the unwarrantable conduct of the latter.....	76

	Page
Reply of Lieutenant Colonel Lyster, in answer to the foregoing.....	78
The Author's answer to the Lieutenant Colonel, with the prudent determination of the latter.....	80
Protest of Count Bertrand against false reports of Lieutenant Colonel Lyster, &amp;c.....	82
Letter of Lieutenant Colonel Lyster to Count Bertrand.....	86
Letter from Count Bertrand to Sir Hudson Lowe, respecting Lieutenant Colonel Lyster.....	87
Letter from Sir Hudson Lowe to Count Bertrand, announcing the removal of Lieutenant Colonel Lyster from Longwood.....	88
Examination of the conduct of Sir Hudson Lowe, in forbidding the English officers to speak to Count Bertrand, on the ground of the latter having refused to accept a challenge.....	90
Attempt of the author of the "Facts" to vilify Madame Bertrand.....	92
Other instances of veracity contained in that work.....	93
Attack made in the "Facts" on the Author of this work; with an answer to his calumnies.....	95
Sketch of the Life of the Author, as a reply to the slanders of the author of the "Facts".....	96
Recommendatory testimony to the character of the Author from Mr. Green, inspector of army hospitals in the West Indies, and from Sir John Talbot, K. C. B.....	101

CONTENTS.

ix

	Page
Similar testimony from Captain Maitland, of the Belle- rophon.....	102
Infamous attempt of the author of the " Facts" to represent the Author as a partisan of the French Government.....	104
Defence of the Author against the serious charge of being intimate with Mr. Lewis Solomon.....	105
History of the snuff-box purchased for Mr. Boys, with an exposure of Mr. Vernon's conduct on that occasion.....	107
Extract of a letter from Mr. Holmes to Mr. Goulbourn, explanatory of his conduct as agent in London for the Author; and exposing the unwarrantable practices of Sir Hudson Lowe with respect to the Author's cor- respondence.....	113
Explanation of the circumstances relating to the letter ad- dressed " James Forbes, Esq." .....	113
True history of the bulletins respecting Bonaparte's health; with the practices of Sir Hudson Lowe relating to that subject.....	120
Answer to the statement in the " Facts," relating to visitors at Longwood; with some instances of the hypocritical pretences of those who have the charge of Napoleon.....	124
Remarks on the amiable character given by the author of the " Facts" to Sir Hudson Lowe.....	128
Misrepresentation of the conduct of Bonaparte, contained in the " Facts," and a true statement of the case.....	130
Falsehood of that author's assertion, respecting the desire expressed for the residence of a priest at Longwood.....	132

	Page
Farther misrepresentations in that work respecting the climate of St. Helena .....	133
Enormous expense of provisions at St. Helena.....	137
Costs of our establishment at St. Helena, in answer to the remarks contained in the " Facts," on the beneficial consequences arising from our holding that island.....	139
Answer to the calumnies respecting the author of the " Letters from St. Helena," &amp;c.....	141
Explanation of his assertion, respecting certain officers visiting Longwood.....	142
Falsehood of the statement in the " Facts," as to Bonaparte abusing the English nation.....	144
Remarks on the excellent character given by the author of the " Facts" of his own book.....	144
Instances of the capricious and annoying conduct pursued towards Napoleon and his followers, and all those who are inclined to treat them as human beings, in answer to the statement on that subject in the " Facts" .....	145
Oppressive conduct of Sir Hudson Lowe, with regard to Mr. Hobhouse's work upon France.. .....	146
Practices of the Governor and his agents on the importation of books and newspapers at St. Helena.....	148
Other unwarrantable measures pursued by that officer for the annoyance of Napoleon.....	150
Cruelty of Sir Hudson Lowe's conduct towards Madame Bertrand.....	152

System carried on at St. Helena with regard to persons convicted of treating the French with civility.....	155
Duplicity of Sir Hudson Lowe's conduct towards Count de Las Cases, on the departure of the latter from St. Helena.....	156
Description of the new house building for Napoleon.....	159
Unjust and oppressive conduct adopted by Sir Hudson Lowe towards the Author, on his departure from St. Helena.....	160
Plunder of the Author's baggage, which had been taken from the custody of his servants.....	163
Letter from the Author to Rear Admiral Plampin, complaining of the outrageous conduct pursued towards him by the Governor.....	164
Reply of Rear Admiral Plampin to the foregoing.....	166
Answer of the Author to the Rear Admiral, explanatory of his conduct.....	167
Letter from the Governor's Secretary to the Author, summoning him on shore; with the oppressive conduct of the Governor on that occasion.....	168
Determination of the Author to proceed at law against his plunderers.....	170
Further information respecting Bonaparte's state of health since the Author left Longwood.....	171
Proposals made by Count Bertrand to Mr. Stokoe, with regard to the latter becoming physician to Napoleon.....	172

	Page
Report by Mr. Stokoe to Count Bertrund on the state of Bonaparte's health.....	174
Second Report from the same on the same subject.....	175
Third Report from the same on the same subject.....	176
Fourth Report from the same on the same subject.....	178
Oppressive conduct pursued towards Mr. Stokoe, for furnishing Count Bertrand with a written statement of Napoleon's health.....	179
Letter from Major Gorrequer to Captain Nichols, refusing to suffer Mr. Stokoe's residence at Longwood.....	180
Remarks on the observations made by the author of the " Facts," concerning the " Letters from Count de Las Cases" .....	182
Abuse by the the author of the " Facts" on those who complain of the oppressive system carried on against Bonaparte.....	183
Lady Lowe's commiseration of the unfortunate situation of Madame Bertrand.....	186
Anxiety of Sir Hudson Lowe to abide by the strict letter of his instructions, where they inculcate any thing like severity.....	188
A refutation of the imputation cast on Bonaparte by the author of the " Facts".....	190

APPENDIX.

	Page
No. I. Letter from Count Bertrand to the Author, with Translation .....	197
No. II. Letter from the Author to Count Bertrand, in reply to the preceding .....	198
No. III. Letter from the Author to Major Gorrequer .....	199
No. IV. Letter and Report from the Author to Sir Hudson Lowe .....	199
No. V. Extract of a Letter from Major Gorrequer to the Author .....	200
No. VI. Bulletin of Bonaparte's health .....	202
No. VII. Bulletin of the same .....	202
No. VIII. Letter from the Author to Major Gorrequer .....	203
No. IX. Proclamation by Sir Hudson Lowe .....	205
No. X. Order to Mr. Weston, to superintend the removal of the Author from St. Helena .....	208
No. XI. Letter from the Author to Mr. Brooke, the Colonial Secretary .....	208

	Page
No. XII. Deposition of John Wyatt, servant to the Author .....	209
No. XIII. Original of the conditions proposed by the French for the regulation of Mr. Stokoe's duty as physician to Napoleon .....	213
No. XIV. Note from Count Montholon to Sir Hudson Lowe .....	214

R E M A R K S,

&c. &c.

---

WHILE occupied in preparing my Narrative and Official Correspondence for the press, and looking forward with impatient anxiety to that inquiry, which can alone enable the British nation to decide on the transactions at St. Helena, subsequent to Sir Hudson Lowe's appointment and arrival there, a pamphlet has appeared, under the specious title of "Facts illustrative of the Treatment of Napoleon Bonaparte in St. Helena, being the Result of minute Inquiries and personal Research in that Island." As this production lays claim to public attention, on the score of STRICT VERACITY, while it is in reality made the vehicle of slander, calumny, and misrepresentation, I have been induced to suspend the publication of my larger work, as much for the purpose of repelling the